

Inspire Days 2018

Why Attend

The Inspire Days is Quadiant annual conference for partners and customers that bring the European Quadiant community together for 3 days to discuss how Quadiant is enabling them to meet their digital transformation goals.

The conference brings together solution experts, business and IT leaders from diverse industries and countries for inspiring keynotes, thought leadership strategy discussions and technical breakout sessions.

The agenda offers technology updates, customer experiences and best practices to help deliver on key projects, including: improved customer engagement, successful digital transformation, efficient cross-channel strategy and privacy compliance to name a few.

The event will take place September 12-14, 2017 in the Hague.

Learn from your peers:

- Customers from various industries will share their best practice and their digital transformation journey.
- Learn about the new versions of Quadiant Solutions.

Learn everything about our CCM and Data Quality Solutions.

- Engage directly with our product subject matter experts giving you access to new product features, roadmap, and demos.

Increase the value of your solutions.

- Leave the conference ready to share knowledge and ideas to make the most of your investments to enhance your proficiency.

Affordable Travel Costs

- The conference is held in the Hague, which has affordable, direct flights from major airports in Europe.
- Inspire Days packs lots of great content into three days. Fly in on Wednesday morning and fly out after the last session on Friday evening.
- All expenses, except personal expenses such as minibar, are included in the packages: airport transfers, hotel and catering.